The pigeonhole principle

High school · olympiad thinking · Synthesis problem · 02

Problem · Investigate, justify, conclude. Choose 11 distinct integers from 1 to 20. Write each as $2^k m$ with m odd and $k \geq 0$. How many values of m are possible? Prove that one selected integer divides another. Show that the conclusion can fail with only ten integers.