High school · olympiad thinking

The pigeonhole principle

Synthesis problem

Investigate, justify, conclude

Choose 11 distinct integers from 1 to 20. Write each as $2^k m$ with m odd and $k \geq 0$. How many values of m are possible? Prove that one selected integer divides another. Show that the conclusion can fail with only ten integers.